Dear Parishioners and Friends of St. Ambrose Parish Family,

Welcome to Holy Week! The holy season of Lent concludes on Thursday as we begin the Mass of the Lord's Supper. We then enter the shortest season in the Church year: the Sacred Triduum (the Sacred Three Days) of Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday. This three-day season culminates with the Solemn Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday night. Please consider participating in the prayer of the Church on these three days.

Please continue to pray for our Elect as they prepare for the three sacraments of initiation: Brenna Grant, Christian & Hunter Johnson, Scott & Nolan Nixon, Rachel McLeod and Matthew Mayer; our candidate for Full Communion in the Catholic Church: Tammy Mayer; our baptized Catholic completing her initiation through the sacrament of Confirmation: Marli Nixon; and our two younger children who will be baptized: Sophie Grant and Wyatt Nixon.

They will celebrate these sacraments at the Easter Vigil. May God bless them in the week ahead and all the days of their lives.

Please note:

No Stations of the Cross and Adoration this Wednesday at St. Michael.

The parish office will be closed on Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter Monday.

No Confessions or 4:30 p.m. Mass on Holy Saturday (March 30, 2024).

May God bless you and your families during this most holy time of year. For those who are traveling, may the angels and saints watch over you.

St. Ambrose 40 Days for Life Prayer Partners

A huge THANK YOU to each of you for making the time in your busy schedules to come to the abortion clinic in Granite City on Wednesday, March 13th to pray with us. It was gratifying to receive news on our day of prayer, March 13th, that a mom who walked past us on the sidewalk to go into the clinic came out after a brief time and walked by us again to share her news that she had changed her mind. She was not going to have the abortion. Since this spring campaign kicked off on Wednesday, February 14th, there have been 18 babies saved by moms choosing life.

Also, within the last week, an employee from the clinic came out of the building and raised her hands in the air and said, "I quit!" 40 days for Life is working with her to help with expenses until she can find another job. We were blessed on Wednesday with beautiful weather. Thank you again to those who joined us and those who were praying with us from home. We will be participating again in the Fall of 2024. Please consider joining us if you have not. For those of you who have joined us, think about asking a friend to join you in prayer. A special thank you to several people behind the scenes who help Kris Kline and me each campaign ... Mary Jo Zykan, with setting up the signup area, Mel Bechtold, who coordinates the bulletin announcements and of course, Fr. Steve, who is always so supportive to this mission for LIFE. We appreciate each one of you.

Here are a few pictures from the day.

Kris Kline and Laurie Milnor

HOLY WEEK MEDITATION: Pope responds to question, "How is it possible that God's glory is manifested in the Cross?"

(ZENIT News / Vatican City, 03.17.2024). 20,000 people gathered in St. Peter's Square around noon on Sunday, March 17, to accompany Pope Francis in the recitation of the Angelus prayer. As usual, moments before, the Pontiff delivered his Sunday address based on the Gospel of that day. Below is the text of the Pope's words in English:

Today, fifth Sunday of Lent, as we draw closer to Holy Week, Jesus in the Gospel (cf. Jn 12:20-33) tells us something important: that on the Cross we will see His glory and that of the Father (cf. vv. 23, 28). But how is it possible that the glory of God manifest itself right there, on the Cross? One would think it happened in the Resurrection, not on the Cross, which is a defeat, a failure.

FAITH FORMATION CORNER PEACE, DEACON BILL KESSLER

Instead, today, talking about His Passion, Jesus says: "The hour has come for the Son of man to be glorified" (v. 23). What does He mean? He means that glory, for God, does not correspond to human success, fame and popularity; glory, for God, has nothing self-referential about it, it is not a grandiose manifestation of power to be followed by public applause. For God, glory is to love to the point of giving one's life. Glorification, for Him, means giving Himself, making Himself accessible, offering His love. And this reached its culmination on the Cross, right there, where Jesus outspread God's love to the maximum, fully revealing the face of mercy, giving us life and forgiving his crucifiers.

Brothers and sisters, from the Cross, the "cathedra of God", the Lord teaches us that true glory, that which never fades and makes us happy, is made up of giving and forgiveness. Giving and forgiveness are the essence of the glory of God. And for us, they are the way of life. Giving and forgiveness: very different criteria to what we see around us, and also within us, when we think of glory as something to receive rather than to give; something to possess instead of something to offer. No, worldly glory fades, and does not leave joy in the heart; it does not even lead to the good of all, but rather to division, discord, and envy.

And so, we can ask ourselves: what is the glory I desire for myself, for my life, that I dream of for my future? That of impressing others with my prowess, my abilities, or the things I possess? Or the path of giving and forgiveness, that of the Crucified Jesus, the way of those who never tire of loving, confident that this bears witness to God in the world and makes the beauty of life shine? What kind of glory do I want for myself? Indeed, let us remember that when we give and forgive, God's glory shines in us. Right there: when we give and forgive. May the Virgin Mary, who followed Jesus faithfully at the hour of His Passion, help us be living reflections of the love of Jesus.

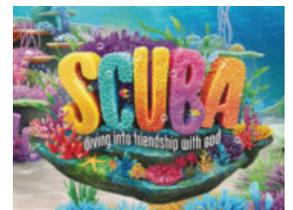

Tristin, is a 16 year old High School Student who began as a visitor to our Parish and then enrolled in our Order of Christian Initiation. Two weeks ago, Fr. Steve fully initiated him into our Catholic Community.

"I was introduced to the church by my grandmother, and now I am officially apart of St. Ambrose Church. I am very happy to have gotten confirmation, it was a long journey, but it was worth it."
